We are pleased to offer this new reflective retreat on the writing of scientist-philosopher-theologian Pierre Teilhard de Chardin. This Retreat is intended to engage the kardia (head and the heart) in ways that were the hallmarks of the work of Pierre de Teilhard de Chardin. We pray that your experience of the retreat will open opportunities for growing awareness and interior freedom. The Retreat runs for eight weeks between 9 September–29 October 2026. Each week your sharing group will meet for one hour to 1.5 hours with your facilitator who is also a spiritual director. Please request individual sessions of spiritual direction if you would like them. At Kardia, all spiritual directors are trained and accredited through programs recognised by the Australian Ecumenical Council for Spiritual Direction.

The text for this retreat is King, Ursula, ed. Pierre Teilhard De Chardin. Edited by Robert Ellsberg, Modern Spiritual Masters. Maryknoll, New York Orbis Books, 1999. (We advise you to purchase your copy early from your supplier. It is available through Amazon and possibly other booksellers). A retreat booklet will also be provided. You will also need a bible, and your preferred art materials/journal.

Even if you have applied for retreats with us previously, would you mind sharing something with us (confidential) about your spiritual journey and why now seems to be a good time to have this retreat. (Use a second page as required). We will contact you as necessary.
